A NEGRO ARRESTED IN MANCHES-TER FOR THIS OFFENCE.

OFFICER HAD TO USE HIS CLUB ON HIM He Was Soon Subdued and Taken to the Station-House-Other Poller

News-The Election on Thursday-

Personal and Other Items.

John Goode is a prisoner in the Manchester station-house. He was arrested last night for assaulting his wife, Eliza, cutting her on the hand. The arrest was made by Officer Wright, who had to use his club quite freely to subdue the wife-beater. Goode and his wife live in Tan-Yard Bottom. He had been drinking when he had his domestic trouble, and his head will be both swollen and sore this morning. John is a negro.

Thomas Bosher was arrested last night by Officer Jones on the charge of threatening to cut his brother Leonard.

The only case before Mayor Maurice yesterday morning was that of Charles Shelly and Ben. Wells, charged with fighting. They were fined $2.56 each, The trouble occurred Priday night at Fourth and Hull streets. THE ELECTION THURSDAY.

The general elections will take place next Thursday. So far as the city of Manchester is concerned, there is very little interest in the result, the only opposition for the City Council being in the First Ward, where Mr. W. O. Randlett is opposed by Mr. W. A. Neale. The regular Democratic organization have recognized Mr. Randlett as their nominee, and they claim that his election is a foregone conclusion. Mr. Neale's friends, however, do not concede his possible defeat.

In the county the Democratic ticket will have opposition in many instances, and in some quarters the People's party people are making claims. PERSONALS AND BRIEFS.

flome of Miss Tompkins's friends, re-membering her loving care of the sick and wounded soldiers during the war, Grove, in Mathews county. Naturally patriotic, loyal, and true, she, as soon only one Dollar from Only One Dollar from as the war between the States commenced, determined to do what she could for the sick and wounded soldiers of the southern army, she obtained, free from rent, the house which then stood on Third Main streets, which belonged to Judge Robertson, and converted it into a hospital. When the order came from the government that the private hospitals nust be closed, this one was found to be with a captain's commission, thus making her an officer in the army, and giving her the legal right to manage the hos-

and Sixth streets, among the Peace Jubilee decorations, is a large picture, conspicuously displayed on the second story over a saloon, of Jackson, the Alexandria hotel-keeper, in the act of shooting Elisworth, when the latter hauled down the Confederate flag over his house, and of one of Ellsworth's zouaves killing Jackson. While there is nothing especially objectionable in the picture itself, it is anything but an appropriate "Peace Jubilee" decoration. It is in de-cidedly bad taste, and this evening it has attracted the attention of hundreds of people on the avenue. Many men from both North and South say it should be torn down, and one ex-Federal soldier said that if it was not taken away by worth was shot by Jackson. Ex-Con-federates are not particularly indignant

AN INTERESTING LECTURE. Confederate Veterans' Hall, on Eleventh street, northwest, was well filled Thursday evening with a large, and might be said, fashionable audience, hear the lecture of Colonel William II. Stewart, of Portsmouth, Va., on the life and character of Matthew Fontaine address. He was very much incensed next day by finding in a report of the lecture in a city paper the word "rebellion" made to appear in two or three instances, as if used by him, as a characterization of the war between the It is needless to say that Colonal Stewart never made use of such an expression. It would have been contrary to every teach ing and tradition of his life, as a Vir ginlan and a gallant southern so
